

Director of Community Development/Public Works

City of Maple Valley, Washington

$106,500 to $136,670 DOE + Competitive Benefit Package

THE COMMUNITY

The award-winning City of Maple Valley, WA is located in beautiful southeast King County. The approximate 24,200 residents enjoy breath-taking views of Mt. Rainier, the serenity of Lake Wilderness and the surrounding park and trails, nationally recognized Tahoma School District, and access all of the cultural amenities of Seattle, Bellevue and Tacoma within a 30 minute drive.

THE POSITION

This unique position manages two distinct municipal functions.

Community Development staff are responsible for land-use, zoning, planning, plan review, permitting, building inspections and code enforcement functions.

Public Works staff ensure that necessary public capital improvement programs developed and projects are scheduled, designed and constructed, as well as maintain the City's street and storm water infrastructure efficiently and safely. The Public Works staff are also responsible for NIMS and NPDES compliance, managing the solid waste franchise agreement and making sure that the City is an excellent environmental steward for Lake Wilderness.

EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE

The successful candidate should have at least a Bachelor's degree in urban planning, public administration and/or civil engineering and must have a minimum of five (5) to seven (7) years management experience in a local government setting and proven experience successfully managing multiple divisions and professional service contracts.

Qualified candidates must have a combination of education and experience that demonstrate the knowledge, skills and abilities to perform the essential job functions of the position.
